

Reset Requires a Press Mark 5:25-34

<sup>25</sup> Now a certain woman had a flow of blood for twelve years, <sup>26</sup> and had suffered many things from many physicians. She had spent all that she had and was no better, but rather grew worse. <sup>27</sup> When she heard about Jesus, she came behind Him in the crowd and touched His garment. <sup>28</sup> For she said, “If only I may touch His clothes, I shall be made well.”

<sup>29</sup> Immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of the [a]affliction. <sup>30</sup> And Jesus, immediately knowing in Himself that power had gone out of Him, turned around in the crowd and said, “Who touched My clothes?”

<sup>31</sup> But His disciples said to Him, “You see the multitude thronging You, and You say, ‘Who touched Me?’ ”

<sup>32</sup> And He looked around to see her who had done this thing. <sup>33</sup> But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth. <sup>34</sup> And He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be healed of your affliction.”
