

Keep Your Day Job and Your Day Dream
Ecclesiastes 11:6
1 Samuel 16:1, 18-19, 23

You must have a dream, so you are not just drifting.

“Imagination is more important than knowledge.” – Rick Warren

Make sure that you work that dream that God has given you.

“If God is over it, you get over it.” – Pastor Kenneth Bryant

Everyone does not have to know your name if God knows your name.

THINGS THAT WILL HELP YOU ON YOUR JOB

Keep Your Heart Pure

- Your heart will get to God before your words do
- Ask God to take out anything that should not be in your heart

Trust God to Represent You

- David was not at the meeting but was represented

“God is in the boardroom adjusting things to His interest.” – Pastor Kenneth Bryant

Trust God Even When We are Last

- David was chosen even though he was out with the sheep

“The school janitor is the one who has the keys to everything.” - Pastor Kenneth Bryant

Develop your passion as a skill.

David used his time to develop his passion into a skill.

THREE POINTS ABOUT WORKING YOUR PASSION

Practice your passion. What you visualize yourself doing, practice it.

Build your skill level; develop your potential.

Seize every opportunity to bless others with your passion.

David marched into Saul's palace as a musician.

“Human beings need to see you ascend sometimes.” – Pastor Kenneth Bryant
