

Corporate Faith – Believe With Me

“It’s not just a me, it’s an us.” – pbj

Scripture teaches us to be interdependent. But we have need of each other.

“What God is getting ready to do, your presence is required.” - pbj

Corporate Faith Requires RELATIONSHIP

Proverbs 18:24; Ephesians 4:25 (NKJV)

Start connecting with people; be friendly.

Be compassionate.

“You can’t connect with followers; you can connect with friends.” – pbj

Who are your four?

“Your next level is tied up in a relationship.” – pbj

Corporate Faith Requires RESPONSIVENESS

Mark 2:3 (NKJV)

Move; carry out the plan.

“We’ve gotta carry you to Jesus.” – pbj

Corporate Faith Requires RISKS

Mark 2:4 (NKJV)

“You cannot avoid the risk.” – pbj

You may have to find a different way of doing things. The problem can spark creativity.

“What risk is God asking us to take?” – pbj

Sometimes you will rely on the faith of others.

Corporate Faith Requires RESILIENCE Against Critics Mark 2:6–9 (NKJV)

“In every crowd there’s going to be some haters.” – pbj

“...let Jesus answer your critics.” – pbj

Don’t let religious rigidity rob you of God’s revelation.

Corporate Faith RESULTS in REJOICING

Mark 2:5; Mark 2:10–12 (NKJV)

“What does God want to do that no one has ever seen before?” - pbj

Participate with God!

What God wants to do will take you and your four.

CALL TO ACTION:

- Who needs your faith right now?
- Whose breakthrough is waiting on your obedience?
- Are you willing to be one of the four?
